

September 26, 2022
For more information contact:
Amanda Cotton
251.471.6191

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Cunningham Bounds Welcomes New Associate Tyler J. Flowers

Mobile, Alabama – The attorneys of Cunningham Bounds are pleased to announce Tyler Flowers has joined the firm as an Associate.

Mr. Flowers, a native of Mobile, Alabama, graduated from the University of Alabama. He earned his Juris Doctor from Cumberland School of Law, where he served as the President of the Student Bar Association. He was also Co-Chair of the Career Development Advisory Board, Founder of Cumberland's Council for Student Athlete Resiliency, and a member of the Black Law Student Association (BLSA).

During law school, Mr. Flowers was awarded the Daniel Austin Brewer Professionalism Award granted to a graduating law student who best exemplifies high standards of ethics and professionalism. He was also a member of Jason's Men's Honor Society, the oldest honor society for the top 40 collegiate senior men based on student leadership.

Mr. Flowers' practice focuses on automobile and trucking accidents, premises liability, products liability, industrial accidents, medical malpractice, and fraud.

For more information about Mr. Flowers, click here.

###

The law firm of Cunningham Bounds, founded in 1958, is based in Mobile, Alabama and has been representing plaintiffs for over 60 years. Today the firm continues its tradition of representing victims in cases involving catastrophic personal injury, industrial accidents, defective products, truck and automobile accidents, and medical malpractice. The firm also has expertise in business litigation, complex litigation, and national and state class action litigation involving defective products and consumer fraud.