

AMANDA H. HERREN

AHH@CUNNINGHAMBOUNDS.COM • 251-471-6191

liability, products liability, and medical malpractice cases. She is a member of the Mobile Bar Association, American Association for Justice, Alabama Association for Justice, the South Alabama Trial Lawyers Association, and Inns of Court.

Amanda's recent successes:

- $1.8 million in a fall case for lower extremity amputee
- $1.3 million verdict
- $450,000 jury verdict for a man who suffered a sternal fracture in a car crash
- $250,000 verdict for a man involved in a car crash
- Numerous other confidential settlements

Amanda earned her Bachelor of Arts, cum laude, from Harding University and her Juris Doctorate from Cumberland School of Law. While at Cumberland, she was a member of its National Trial Team, an editor for the American Journal of Trial Advocacy, and served as Assistant Director of the Trial Board.

Amanda actively volunteers in the community through her membership with the Junior League of Mobile. She is also a member of the Senior Bowl Committee, Fuse Project, Executive Board Member of Rapahope, and a Small Group Leader for Bible Study Fellowship.

A native Mobilian, Amanda Herren began her legal career as an Assistant District Attorney with the Mobile County District Attorney's Office. As a prosecutor, Amanda was an aggressive advocate for the victims of violent crime and their families – ensuring that their voices were heard in the pursuit of justice. She approached her job as a prosecutor with compassion for victims and an unwavering dedication to both the evidence and the law. She gained valuable trial experience while serving our community and making it safer. She has tried over 30 jury trials and joins Cunningham Bounds as a seasoned litigator.

Amanda's practice focuses on personal injury litigation, including automobile and trucking accidents, industrial accidents, premises

BAR ADMISSIONS/EDUCATION

- Alabama State Bar (2016)
- Samford University, Cumberland School of Law, J.D., (2016)
- Harding University, B.A., English, cum laude, (2012)

AFFILIATIONS

- Mobile Bar Association, Member
 - ◇ Public Service Committee Chairman (2025)
- Baldwin County Bar Association, Member
- American Association for Justice, Member
- Alabama Association for Justice, Member
- Mobile Bar Association Young Lawyers
 - ◇ Past President (2025)
 - ◇ President (2024)
 - ◇ Vice President (2023)
 - ◇ Treasurer (2022)
- South Alabama Trial Lawyers Association, Member
- Inns of Court, Member

RECOGNITION & AWARDS

- Super Lawyers, Mid South Rising Star (2025)
- Samford University Career Development Advisory Board (2014 – 2016)
- National Trial Advocacy Competition, 1st Place (2014)