A formidable and universally respected litigator (voted by his peers as Mobile Personal Injury Lawyer of the Year for 2015 and 2010), Greg has obtained numerous multimillion dollar jury verdicts and settlements for his clients over the past 35 years. He is known for relentless preparation, unparalleled attention to detail and a precisely executed trial plan to best present the cases of his clients.

Greg has distinguished himself by his willingness to take on and win complex class action, medical negligence, product liability and catastrophic personal injury cases. He has acted as co-lead counsel on numerous high profile and noteworthy cases including the Amtrak "Sunset Limited" train crash in Mobile, the worst passenger railway disaster in US history. Greg served as co-lead counsel for all 247 victims and their families.
